Poems You Ought to Know.

Whatever your occupation may be, and however crowded your hours with affairs, do not fail to secure at least a few minutes every day for refreshment of your inner life with a bit of poetry.—Prof. Charles Ellot Norton.

Paradisi Gloria

By THOMAS WILLIAM PARSONS.

O frate into Claserina s cittadina.

There is a city, builded by no hand.
And unappreachable by sea or shore,
And unascaliable by any hand
Of storming soldiery for evermore.

There we no longer shall divide our time By acts or pleasures,—doing petry things Of work or warfare, merchandise or rhyme; But we shall sit beside the silver springs

That flow from God's own footstool, and hehold Sages and marryrs, and those blessed few. Who loved us once and were beloved of old.

To dwell with them and walk with them anew,

Slusical motion, the perpetual play Of every faculty that Heaven bestows Through the bright, busy and eternal day.

the began in The Times-Dispatch Sunday, Oct. 15, 1905. One is published each day.
